65 miles: Right on Fabyan from Rt 131 at 2nd blinker

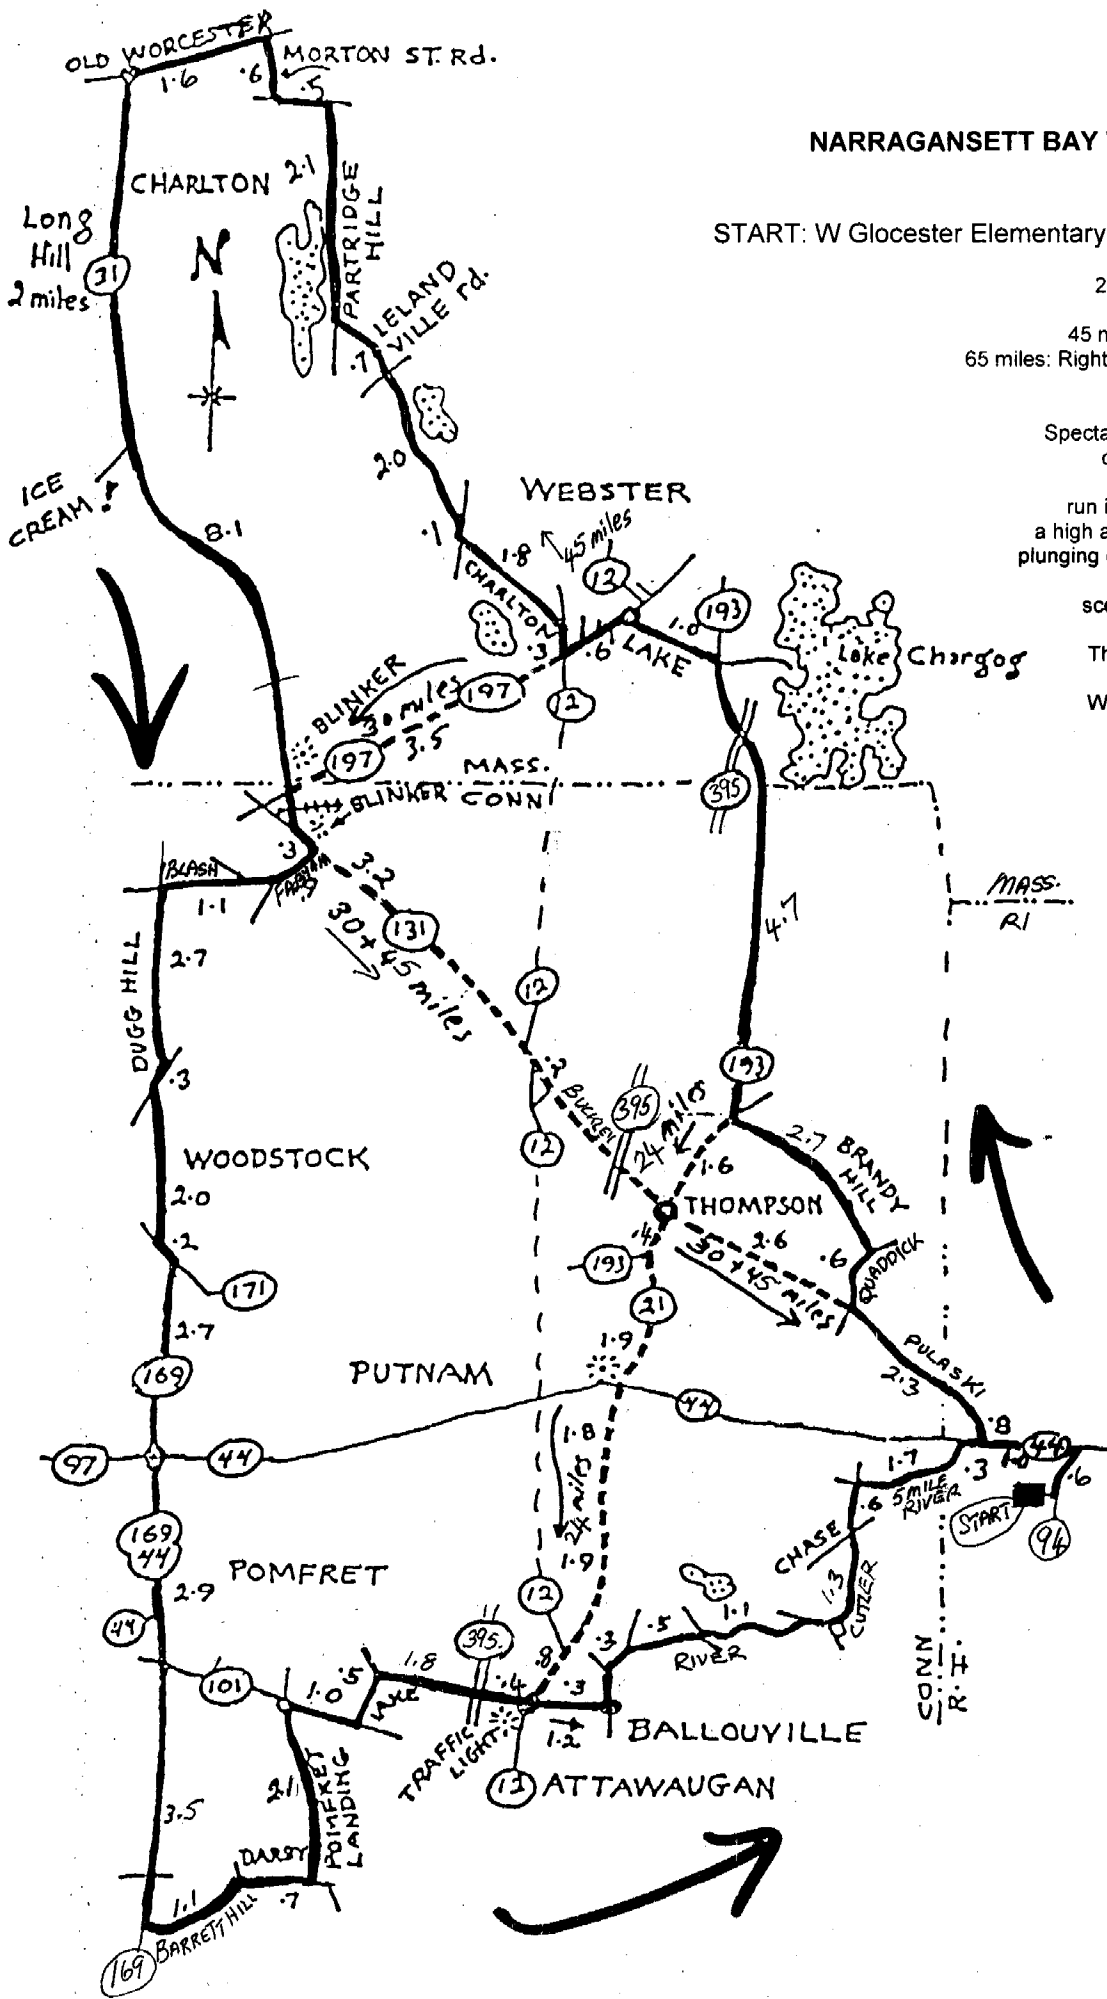

SCENIC NOTES:

Spectacular scenic ride in magnificent rolling country, especially on the longer rides.

Rt 31, south of Charlton, is the finest run in the area as it traverses Dresser Hill, a high and open ridge with great views before plunging down for an awesome 2-mile descent!

Dugg Hill Rd is a shorter, but equally scenic ridge. East of Attawaugan, follow 5-Mile River Rd. Charlton, Thompson, Woodstock and Pomfret are picture-book New England Towns.

Webster is a small industrial town, while Attawaugan and Ballouville are now-typical run-down mill villages, but still architecturally interesting.
