"HOPE VALLEY - SOUTHERN RIDE"

RICHMOND & CHARLESTON

15 & 32 mile rides

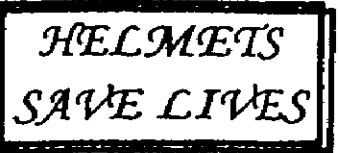

START: Stop & Shop plaza, Rt 138, Richmond (Hope Valley), RI. Turn left off Rt 95 for plaza.

15 miles: left on Woodville Rd. from Rockville Rd.

32 miles: straight at above intersection, follow Rt. 91

SCENIC NOTES

This ride explores the southernmost part of the state which encompasses several fishing, state park management and bird sanctuary locations. Starting from Hope Valley, you'll pass Centerville & Rockville fishing areas. The short ride turns towards Woodville then spins through the Carolina Management Area. Heading south on the long ride, Rt. 91 takes you through Woody Hill and Burlingame State Parks. At the southernmost part of the ride, enjoy a spin along Ocean Scenic Highway, past the Kimball Bird Sanctuary, Ninigret Pond & Conservation Area & Ninigret Park, where time trials are held for bicycle racing during the summer. You'll also pass by the deactivated United States Airport & Fort Ninigret. You could follow the map for a trip off route to the Charlestown Beaches and it's breach water. Heading back, noteworthy stops are the Indian Cedar Swamp Area and the Narragansett Indian Church.
